

I am a registered voter. Do not give others control of my computer systems. Do not infringe upon free software or its distribution in any way what-so-ever. The entertainment industry has no rights to invade, trespass, or otherwise hinder the operation, use, or capabilities of any computing hardware or software i possess. The companies making, distributing or otherwise dealing in or handling software for the purpose of making a profit or the purpose of facillitating profit making must not be allowed to exclusively determine any characteristics of hardware, software, firmware, or their combination as currently available to the public. Do not become a pawn of the special interest groups seeking to curtail freedoms in america for the capacity to increase profits, their own or of others.
